The partnership between the MINISTRY OF CULTURE Directorate-General for Performing Arts and GAI - Association for the Circuit of Young Italian Artists along with GA/ER - Association Young Artists of the Emilia Romagna and Teatro Pubblico Pugliese - Apulia Region, for the 2022/2023 supports the mobility of emerging Italian artists in the world through the programme Movin'Up dedicated to the Performing Arts.

Movin'Up Spettacolo-Performing Arts is a competition addressed to young italian creatives between 18 and 35 years of age who work with professional goals and who have been admitted or invited officially abroad by public and/or private entities, cultural institutions, festivals, organizations international, training and further education institutions for experiences of: residency and/or production, co-production, tournée/tours, training, promotion and visibility.

The artistic fields allowed in the 2022/2023 Call for Applications are: music, theatre, dance, circus arts.

In this session, only applications for artistic activities abroad starting between July 1st 2022 and June 30th 2023 will be admitted.

Movin'Up is an established programme that focuses on:

- promoting the work of Italian artists in an international context through real opportunities for visibility and representation of their activities;
- supporting the production of projects that are more interesting from the point of view of innovation and interdisciplinary focus, giving a boost to circuitry of national artistic research in the world;
- encouraging the participation of young creatives in qualified training programmes, workshops, internships organised by foreign institutions that offer real opportunities for artistic and professional growth.

The initiative, created through the distribution of an annual fund, allows artists to apply for a coverage of an international artistic mobility experience. The Movin'Up contribution covers - totally or partially - the costs for the realization of the project abroad.

In this edition, the programme confirms two sub-actions aimed at encouraging the candidacies of artists according to specific criteria, with a budget for dedicated awards: 1) territorial belonging of the artists | focus Emilia Romagna; 2) geographical development of international projects | focus Adriatic Ionian Euroregion.

The project, launched in 1999 and implemented by the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities since 2003, has promoted 858 projects out of 2.782 submitted, for a total of more than 1.600 artists.

Application Deadline: March 31st, 2023 - h.12.00 (italian time).

The applications to the contest may be submitted only through the official on-line platform.
